

ADVOCACY DAY
FOR ACCESS & INDEPENDENCE

EVENT PARKING DETAILS

We have 220 parking spaces reserved for the event, thanks to the City of Columbia Office of Parking Services. These areas require the attached parking pass for free parking at bagged meters during the event. The reserved parking areas are as follows:

From West to East:

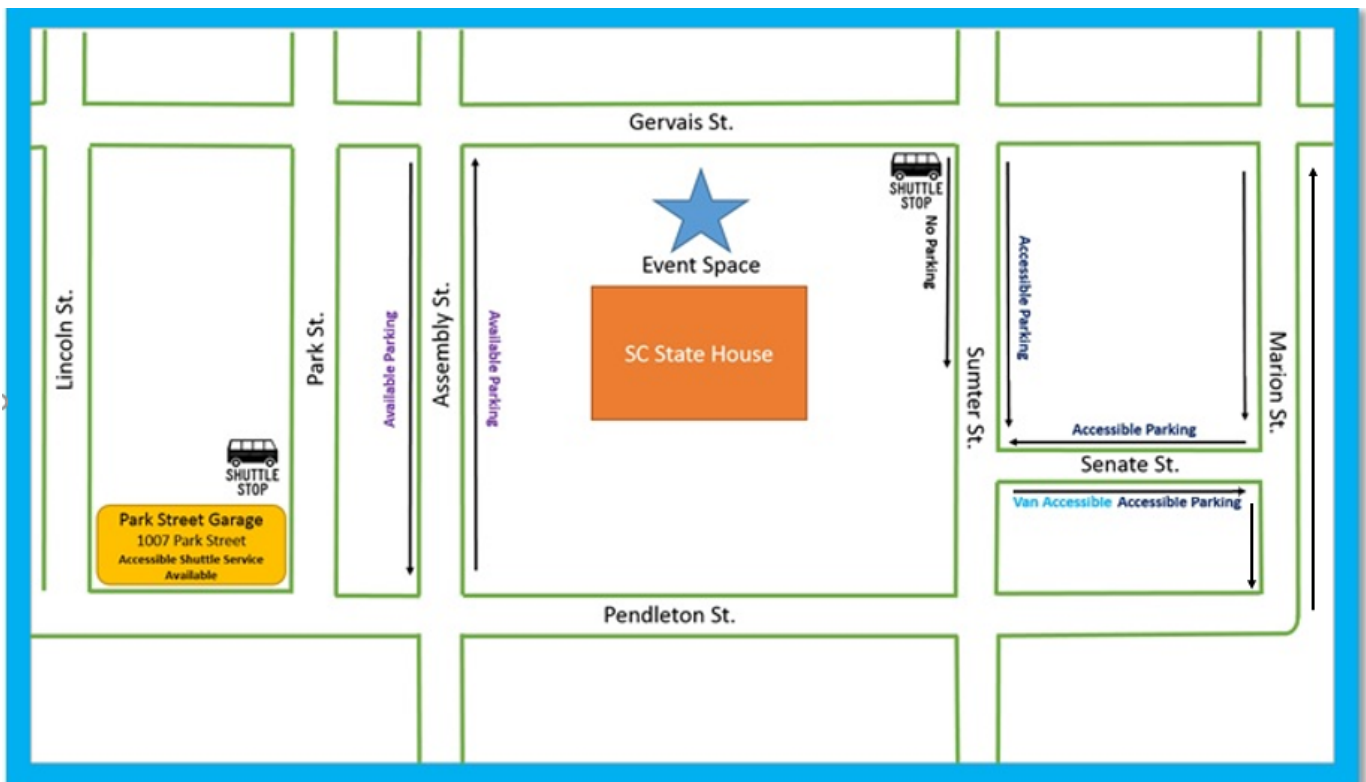

- North and Southbound Assembly St. between Gervais and Pendleton (1100 & 1000 Assembly and Islands)- General event parking at bagged meters free with pass.
- Northbound Sumter St. (1100 & 1000 Sumter) - General event parking at bagged meters free with pass
- Senate St. Eastbound from Sumter St.(1300 Senate and Island) - Van Accessible parking at bagged meters free with pass.
- Senate St. Westbound from Marion St. (1000 Marion) - Accessible Parking free with parking pass
- North and Southbound Marion St. - General event parking at bagged meters free with pass

Special note about Park St. Garage (1007 Park St.):

- Accessible parking is free with your accessible parking placard/plate.
- There is a fee for general parking in this garage.

Accessible Shuttle:

- We will have an accessible shuttle starting at 9:15am running until 10:45am. that will take passengers from the parking garage to the event area.
- The shuttle will also drive a route around our other parking areas should you need assistance getting to the event space.
- There will be a shuttle sign in the front passenger window and on the dashboard of the van, visible from the outside.

PARKING PASS

BAGGED METERS near
state house grounds
April 13, 2022

For garage parking, you may enter from either Park Street or Pendleton Street. Please place pass on the front dash of your vehicle before entering the garage, grab a ticket, and present this pass to parking attendant when you leave.
For meter parking, park at any bagged meter with this pass on your dashboard.

PARKING PASS

BAGGED METERS near
state house grounds
April 13, 2022

For garage parking, you may enter from either Park Street or Pendleton Street. Please place pass on the front dash of your vehicle before entering the garage, grab a ticket, and present this pass to parking attendant when you leave.
For meter parking, park at any bagged meter with this pass on your dashboard.